Pastor : Rev. Peter Eke

First Sunday of Advent

A PRAYER FOR THE First Sunday of Advent

God of light and life,
give us hope as we wait
for your coming again.
When we are tempted
to be grateful to have found you
while others are lost,
send us out into the darkness
in search of those who need you most.
Amen.

From the Pastor's Desk

RUMMAGE SALE: Thanks to all who made donations to the Fall Parish Rummage Sale. Thank you to the members of the Restoration Committee who volunteered time and energy to make the sale a great success. The net profit to the parish was $1,271.32 from the sale.

SECOND COLLECTION: The parish made $5,577.22 from the second collections. This is a great addition to our parish maintenance responsibilities

PARISH RAFFLE DRIVE: Our third Parish Cash Raffle is in the books! Thank you to everyone who participated with their prayers, bookkeeping, organization, sales time, and personal cash spent on tickets. Once again we learned what may work best for St. Paul Parish and things we should change. We all need to unite to continue to make it a continuous success.

Remember, all the pig roasts, Mexican dinners, hobo stews, the weekly candy bar sales, the Christmas signs, the bakeless bakesales did not generate the profit we realize from our raffle. It is so much more gratifying when a parish family pulls together to reach a goal and it is not just a few people doing the work.

We do need to acknowledge our raffle super hero, Ray Tovar! He not only sold his family tickets, and tickets for the Knights, but helped other parishioners with their tickets. Tom's Family Market allowed us to set up a sales table in their store which greatly helped to boost sales!

Thank you to the Restoration Committee, the K of C, the Altar Society Ladies, visitors and parishioners. Many hands were on deck to make this possible.

The net profit to the Parish $6,923.40; the K of C received $2000.00; the Altar Society received $500.00. The FOUR raffle winners are: First Prize $2000.00 Darlene Hall (from Texas); Second Prize $1000.00 Dan Willison; Third Prize $500.00 Roger Hawley; and Fourth Prize $400.00 Kim Smillie. Congratulations to all the winners.

Number of families that sold all their own tickets – 59

Number of families that sold some of their tickets- 12

Number of families that did not sell any tickets – 16

WHERE DO YOU FIND YOURSELF (YOUR FAMILY) IN THE THREE GROUPS?????

2017 CSA DRIVE: Saint Paul exceeded target thanks for the generous and graciously support of many parish families. The Target was $23,033.00 and the total pledges were $25,017.72. Thank you once again. Those who made pledges are encouraged to redeem them with time.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION: The feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is on December 8. It is a Holy Day of Obligation. The Vigil Mass on Thursday, December 7th is at 5pm. The Mass on Friday December 8 is at 6pm.

ADVENT PARISH PENANCE SERVICE: Sunday, December 10, is our penance service at 5pm. Many priests will be available to hear our confessions. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation was encounter God's mercy. God's mercy is poured out upon the repentants so that they can change and grow. When we are forgiven, we are called to learn to forgive others. Our world needs witnesses of mercy in every sphere.

PLEASE ADD THE FOLLOWING TO YOUR DAILY PRAYERS: Kevin Cooper as he journey's through our RCIA program and for Christian Tollini and Jessica Knowles as they begin their journey to Holy Matrimony.

Know you are loved,
Father Peter
