Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them. Bless them and their families. I ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Amen

To whom should I go and how exactly can we share together the renewing presence of the Spirit's gentle love "resting" upon us?

MISSION STATEMENT
 We, the parishioners of St. Paul, Onaway, open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, are dedicated to preserve, live and proclaim the Good News brought by Jesus. As a sacramental people, we are committed to welcome all into Christ's presence among us.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ Jesus,

"But be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into. "You too, be ready; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not expect." (Luke 12: 39-40)

How do we stay spiritually awake? I believe our Blessed Mother is of the greatest help!!!

"Mary was able to turn a stable into a home for Jesus, with poor swaddling clothes and an abundance of love. She is the handmaid of the Father who sings his praises. She is the friend who is ever concerned that wine not be lacking in our lives. She is the woman whose heart was pierced by a sword and who understands all our pain. As mother of all, she is a sign of hope for peoples suffering the birth pangs of justice. She is the missionary who draws near to us and accompanies us throughout life, opening our hearts to faith by her maternal love. As a true mother, she walks at our side, she shares our struggles and she constantly surrounds us with God's love.

Through her many titles, often linked to her shrines, Mary shares the history of each people which has received the Gospel and she becomes a part of their historic identity. Many Christian parents ask that their children be baptized in a Marian shrine, as a sign of their faith in her motherhood which brings forth new children for God. There, in these many shrines, we can see how Mary brings together her children who with great effort come as pilgrims to see her and to be seen by her. Here they find strength from God to bear the weariness and the suffering in their lives.

As she did with Juan Diego, Mary offers them maternal comfort and love, and whispers in their ear: "Let your heart not be troubled... Am I not here, who am your Mother?" (From APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION: EVANGELII GAUDIUM, Pope Francis 2013)

And remember,

You are Loved,
Father Patrick

Thank you to those who participated in the annual Seminarian Education Fund Special Collection last weekend. There is still time to respond to the great need we have to support the seminarians of our diocese. Your generous gift will make a huge difference now and for the future of our Church. If you have not already, please consider making a gift and continue to pray for vocations and our seminarians! Envelopes for the special collection are available in the parish office or you may also donate online by logging on to the diocesan website and clicking on the "Make a Gift" link. To learn more about vocations in the Diocese of Gaylord, contact Fr. Benjamin Rexroat, Director of Vocations, via phone at 989.732.5147 or through email to brexroat@dioceseofgaylord.org.

"Protecting our children— Diocese Promise to protect; pledge to heal In an effort to protect all children and to promote healing, the Diocese of Gaylord encourages victims of child abuse or neglect to report the matter. In fact, many professionals are required by Michigan State law to report suspected abuse or neglect of a child or minor. Individuals should contact their local office of the Department of Human Services. If an allegation involves sexual misconduct of a minor by clergy or any employee of the Diocese of Gaylord, even if it is in the past, individuals may also contact Larry LaCross at (989) 705-9010."
