Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them. Bless them and their families. I ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Amen

To whom should I go and how exactly can we share together the renewing presence of the Spirit's gentle love "resting" upon us?

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ Jesus,

October begins a Month of the Rosary, and also a call to approach the Throne of Grace praying for the conversion and salvation of souls!!! From the AmericaNeedsFatima Website:

"Please know of my prayers as you plan a series of "Rosary Rallies" to commemorate the 90th Anniversary of the Fatima miracle of the sun.

90 years ago the message of Fatima was one of hope at the beginning of a century that seemed to have lost hope. The serial holocausts of the 20th century were symptomatic of this loss of hope among people who had closed themselves to transcendence: that they were created by a loving God more than just to die.

At Fatima Mary points to the source of all hope, the hope that does not disappoint: namely, her Son, Jesus Christ. Our world is seemingly paralyzed by fear of weapons of mass destruction – from the poison gas of WWI trenches, to the saturation bombing and atomic weapons of WWII, and potential biological weapons in the hands of terrorists. To this world, Mary offers a weapon of mass conversion: the holy rosary.

Today, 90 years after Fatima, Mary's appeal for prayer is more urgent than ever. May God bless this effort to witness to this powerful prayer this October 13th and may these prayers deliver us from all anxiety and bring us peace."

— *Most Reverend Thomas Wenski
Bishop of Orlando, Florida*

Please join us this month in praying to our Heavenly Father for His abundant mercies, in union with the Blessed Virgin Mary for the Conversion of Sinners and the Salvation of Souls!!!
And remember,

You are loved,
Father Patrick
