MISSION STATEMENT

From the Pastor's Desk

World Mission Sunday: October 18, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

World Mission Sunday, this year on the weekend of October 17-18, is our annual worldwide Eucharistic celebration for the missions and missionaries of the world. Pope Francis, in his message for World Mission Sunday, implores us:

"In this year marked by the suffering and challenges created by the Covid-19 pandemic, the missionary journey of the whole Church continues in light of the words found in the account of the calling of the prophet Isaiah: 'Here am I, send me' (6:8). This is the ever new response to the Lord's question: 'Whom shall I send?' This invitation from God's merciful heart challenges both the Church and humanity as a whole in the current world crisis."

Pope Francis reminds us that as baptized Catholics, we are personally called to mission. We are called to bring Christ's love to others, especially those most forgotten. This special Sunday brings to life our baptismal call in a personal way, inviting each of us to be "sent out" to the ends of the earth by supporting missionaries and those they serve. Much-needed gifts in this effort sustain priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses across Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, parts of Latin America and Europe.

World Mission Sunday is a beautiful invitation to reflect on our common call to mission, but more profoundly than that, it is an invitation to move beyond reflection — we are called to action. The Lord whispers to each of us, "Whom shall I send?" and we too must discern how we can answer, "Here I am, send me."

I am grateful for your generosity and concern for your brothers and sisters in need, both at home and around the world. I pray that you will join me in response on World Mission Sunday, both in prayer and generous sacrifice to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, answering the Lord's invitation with a resounding "Here I am, send me!"

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Most Reverend Walter A. Hurley
Apostolic Administrator

Stewardship By the Book

In today's second reading, St. Paul thanks the Philippians for being willing to share in his hardships and promises that God, in turn, will fully supply all their needs. Our God truly cannot be outdone in generosity.

Vocation View

Once we have been grasped by the beauty of God's promised reward, we want to go out to the highways and byways to invite others into the heavenly banquet. Who will tell the Good News? This Vocations' Awareness Week is a good time to begin.

Stewardship Reflections

"My God will supply whatever you need..." - PHILIPPIANS 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month — be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

Family Perspective-by Bud Ozar

Today's gospel speaks about "unworthy wedding guests." What makes a "worthy" guest? Presence and presents are not enough. The greatest gift we can give is support to the couple as they voyage through life together because marriage naturally contains within it the fields of disappointment. Think of the weddings you have attended. Have you been a "worthy guest?"

"Protecting our children— Diocese Promise to protect; pledge to heal In an effort to protect all children and to promote healing, the Diocese of Gaylord encourages victims of child abuse or neglect to report the matter. In fact, many professionals are required by Michigan State law to report suspected abuse or neglect of a child or minor. Individuals should contact their local office of the Department of Human Services. If an allegation involves sexual misconduct of a minor by clergy or any employee of the Diocese of Gaylord, even if it is in the past, individuals may also contact Larry LaCross at (989) 705-9010."

Bless you for your Stewardship
