PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God, the source of creation and love,
you invite each of us to serve you
through the life which is your gift.

May your grace encourage men and women to heights of holiness through service to the church as priests, sisters, brothers and lay ministers.

Make me an instrument to encourage others to give of themselves and challenge me to do the same.

AMEN

Dear All,

The below is how people will submit questions for our question and answer sessions after every other 10am Sunday Mass. For this Sunday you could either email a question to the office, or drop one off. You do not need to attach your name, but feel free to do so. Please don't submit a question if you do not plan on attending.

I think that, generally, the sessions will start around 11:30am, or before. And finish before 12:30pm. If we have gone through the questions, we will keep the remainder until the next session. I might record the sessions and handouts may be given as required.

If I decide that a question is not appropriate, no public reason will be given, but if approached by whoever submitted it, I will explain my reasons.

My question for the Q & A is: (Only one question on each form. If multiple questions, please use a separate form for each question, unless the questions are related. Or if you need a full sheet.)

write your question here

NOTE: All appropriate questions regarding the Catholic Faith, the Church, its teaching and stances on topics and issues will be given consideration. (Q. What would be an inappropriate question? A. Questions naming or attacking any individuals by name and the use of foul and explicit language are considered inappropriate.)

Prior to each session we will have this in the bulletin, Cut it out and fill it in. I hope, and pray, that this will be successful and useful for us all to grow in our Faith. (And not too much work for me!)

God bless, Father Scott

Father,

In this time of Eucharistic Revival,
inflame the hearts of men "up North,"
young and old alike,
with a Charity that burns for priestly service.

Scatter the darkness of a secular culture
that tends to worship a "God of convenience"
rather than the Christ of self-sacrifice.

Fill your Church with faithful stewards
of the Sacred Mysteries
who, like Mary and Joseph,
fully entrust themselves to Divine Providence.
-Amen.

This has been a difficult year for many people in our community. I want to remind you of a free community resource that I encourage everyone to use if they find themselves needing extra support. 2-1-1 is a public service number for all non-emergency needs. You can call it any time, any day and an agent will connect you with whatever it is you're looking for - food, financial assistance, housing support, clothing, transportation... All you need to do is dial 2-1-1 or text your zip code to 898-211 to get connected.

Protecting our Children

Diocese Promise to protect; pledge to heal in an effort to protect all children and to promote healing, the Diocese of Gaylord encourages victims of child abuse or neglect to report the matter. In fact, many professionals are required by Michigan State law to report suspected abuse or neglect of a child or minor. Individuals should contact their local office of the Department of Human Services. If an allegation involves sexual misconduct of a minor by clergy or any employee of the Diocese of Gaylord, even if it is in the past, individuals may also contact Larry LaCross at (989) 705-9010.
